

CELEBRITY PREDICTIONS

As the Chinese New Year celebrations get underway, Tarot Reader Shivani Adalja tells OK! Middle East what The Year of the Rabbit has in store for the stars...

"I believe every year has its own energy," explains Shivani, "And as per Chinese astrology, this year will be particularly eventful for Jennifer Aniston, Jessica Alba as well as Brangelina." Using her tarot cards, the professional well-being consultant, tells us whether George Clooney will finally tie the knot and if Eva Longoria will find love again...

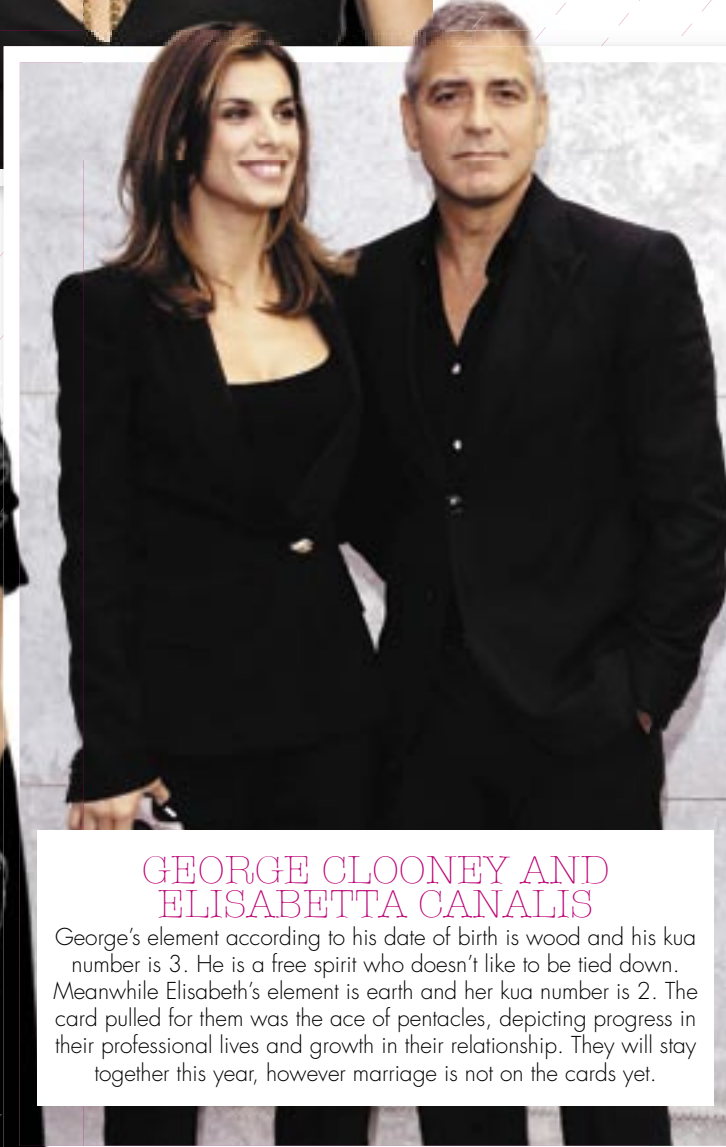

ANGELINA JOLIE AND BRAD PITT

Angelina's element as per her date of birth is earth and her kua number is 8. We are in period 8 as per feng shui cycle and this period in her life is considered auspicious. She will have great highs in her professional life, but her personal life will continue to be stormy. Brad Pitt's element as per his date of birth is water and his kua number is 1. As earth and water form a destructive cycle, the Jolie-Pitt relationship will always be plagued with problems. However this year does not indicate a break-up. Instead, they will take the relationship a step further and tie the knot. However there will be some trouble towards the end of the year. Difference of opinion will always remain between this couple. The tarot card pulled for their relationship is two of cups reversed, indicating minor disharmony.

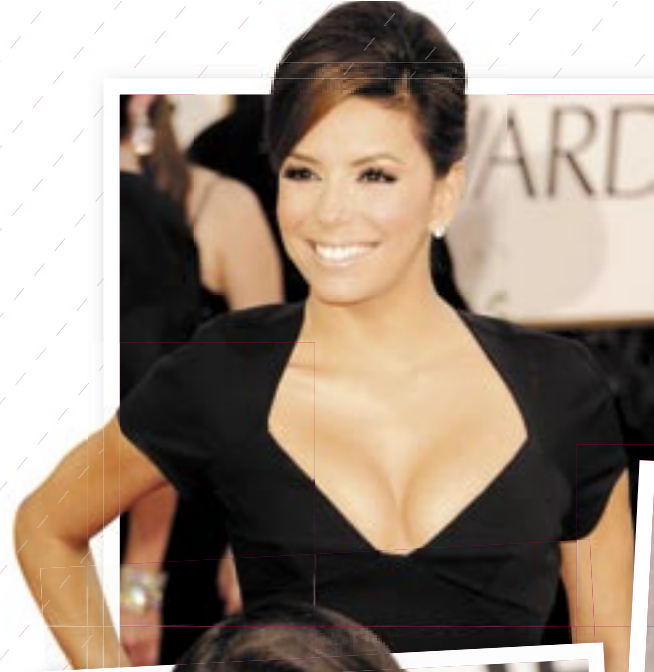

JENNIFER ANISTON

Jennifer's element according to her date of birth is earth and her kua number is 2. She will continue to do well professionally and she will diversify into other aspects of filmmaking but her personal life will still be rocky. Sadly man-wise she won't find someone to settle down with, although she will continue to have some fun along the way. The card pulled for her was Hermit indicating no marriage this year.

GEORGE CLOONEY AND ELISABETTA CANALIS

George's element according to his date of birth is wood and his kua number is 3. He is a free spirit who doesn't like to be tied down. Meanwhile Elisabeth's element is earth and her kua number is 2. The card pulled for them was the ace of pentacles, depicting progress in their professional lives and growth in their relationship. They will stay together this year, however marriage is not on the cards yet.

EVA LONGORIA

Eva's element as per her date of birth is earth and her kua number is 8. Her professional life is on the up but her personal life will remain in turmoil this year. 2011 will be a year of personal struggle and wrong decisions for her. She will fall in love soon. The tarot card pulled for her is 4 of cups reversed, indicating short-term relationships this year. She will take her time before settling down again.

MEGAN FOX

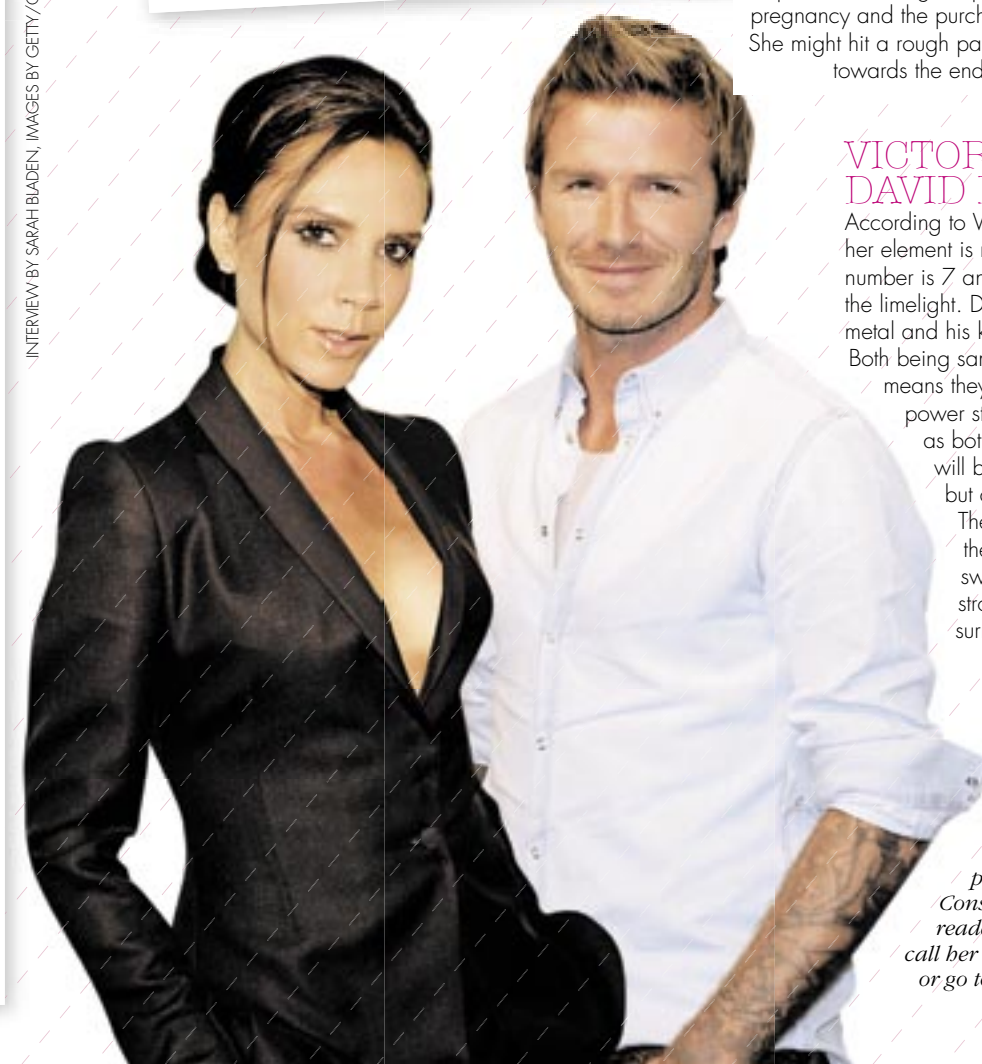

Megan's element according to her date of birth is water and her kua number is 1. Professionally she will have a slow start but things will pick up towards the end of the year. The card pulled for her was queen of swords indicating she is at crossroads in life and needs to make certain decisions about her marriage.

JESSICA ALBA

Jessica's element according to her date of birth is earth and her kua number is 5. It's a slow year professionally, and she has to work hard to secure good projects. 2012 is a better year for her professionally. The card pulled for her was Empress, indicating the possibility of a second pregnancy and the purchase of a new house. She might hit a rough patch in her relationship towards the end of the year.

VICTORIA AND DAVID BECKHAM

According to Victoria's date of birth her element is metal and her kua number is 7 and she will remain in the limelight. David's element is also metal and his kua number is also 7. Both being same number and element means they will have a constant power struggle in their marriage as both like to be in control. It will be a year of celebration but conflict will continue. The card pulled for them was king of swords indicating strong masculine energy surrounding this year.

TREAT OF THE WEEK

WHAT IS IT?

This is a scrub, massage and mini facial all in one. The deep body cleanse uses a marine scrub which detoxifies and oxygenates your skin, followed by an intense moisturising session.

WHAT DOES IT INVOLVE?

The therapist focuses upon dry areas like heels, knees and elbows to remove dead skin. In the meantime, a light mask is applied to the face. While the therapist's deft touch on your body leaves you feeling full of energy, the facial continues with beautifully fragranced creams, leaving you so relaxed, you'll soon be drifting to the land of nod. However, you wake up when you have to head to the shower to wash it all off, before then having a full body moisturising massage.

WHAT ARE THE HIGHLIGHTS/DOWNSIDES?

The results are glowing skin which feels as soft as a baby's bottom! The scrub is not painful, but if your skin is sensitive to an enthusiastic grainy rubdown, this might not be for you. Also, don't be shy to ask the therapist to alter the temperature of the shower – mine was almost freezing!

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

Dhs400 for a one hour session.

WHERE CAN I GET IT?

Silkor Villa, 708 Jumeirah Beach Road, Umm Suqeim 2. Call 04 348 0500.
